PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

CELEBRATING 15 YEARS OF PURPOSE, PROGRESS AND POSSIBILITIES

Dear Friends and Well-Wishers,

It gives me immense pride and gratitude to present the Annual Report of Utkarsh Global Foundation for the financial year 2025-2026. This year holds exceptional significance for all of us, as Utkarsh completed fifteen years of dedicated service to society on 8 September 2025.

What began as a small community initiative has evolved into a growing social movement driven by compassion, responsibility and collective action. Over the years, we have remained committed to one guiding belief: meaningful change becomes possible when ordinary people come together with an extraordinary sense of purpose.

The year 2025-2026 was truly a year of purpose, progress and possibilities. Through our nine movements, we continued working for environmental protection, animal welfare, women's education and empowerment, social justice and empowerment, disaster preparedness and relief, road safety, healthcare, citizen welfare and education.

Our Environment Protection Movement expanded its efforts against single-use plastic through major public campaigns, including Utkarsh Environment Wari 2025, Utkarsh Environment Kawad Yatra 2025, Plastic Mukh Ganesha, Utkarsh Environment Durga Puja and school-based environmental awareness programmes. Through the distribution of reusable cloth bags and steel water bottles, we encouraged communities to adopt responsible and sustainable practices.

Under the Animal Welfare Movement, we continued providing treatment, feeding support, protection and compassionate care to stray animals. The inauguration of the Utkarsh Animal Birth Control Centre in collaboration with Jalgaon City Municipal Corporation strengthened our efforts towards humane animal population management and rabies prevention. Our Water Pot Campaign, Stray Together initiative, animal-law awareness sessions and Utkarsh Raksha campaign further promoted safer and more compassionate coexistence between people and animals.

Our Women Education and Empowerment Movement continued creating pathways towards self-reliance through skill development, livelihood-oriented training, menstrual health awareness and legal education. The Savitrimai Phule Women Empowerment Centres in Wada and Chennai supported women in developing practical skills, building confidence and moving towards financial independence.

Through the Education Movement, we extended essential learning support to children and encouraged access to educational resources. Our Healthcare Movement, particularly the Rabies Mukti Mission 2030, reached students and communities through vaccination drives, awareness sessions, street plays and practical guidance on rabies prevention, animal-bite safety and timely medical action.

The Janata Ki Soch Movement continued connecting with citizens at the grassroots level, creating awareness about civic, legal and personal concerns and encouraging people to raise their voices. Our Social Justice and Empowerment, Disaster Preparedness and Relief, and Road Safety Movements remained integral to our broader commitment to building inclusive, informed, safe and resilient communities.

During the year, Utkarsh strengthened its presence across Maharashtra, Punjab, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, West Bengal, Delhi, Karnataka and Telangana. This growing presence reflects not only the expansion of our programmes but also the increasing trust placed in our mission by communities across India.

As we celebrate fifteen years of Utkarsh, we recognise that every milestone brings with it a greater responsibility. Our journey ahead is guided by ambitious yet essential dreams: a Plastic-Free India, a Rabies-Free India, accessible animal healthcare, empowered women, educated children and communities where every individual can live with dignity.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to our Board of Trustees, team members, volunteers, government authorities, municipal bodies, educational institutions, CSR partners, donors, supporters and beneficiaries. Your faith, cooperation and participation have strengthened every step of this journey.

The story of Utkarsh has been built by people who believed that service could create lasting change. As we enter the next chapter, we renew our commitment to work with greater compassion, transparency and determination.

Together, let us continue building a better world.

With gratitude,

Adv. Dagadu Londhe

OUR STORY

FROM SEVEN YOUNG DREAMERS TO A NATIONAL MOVEMENT

Every remarkable journey begins with a small dream.

The roots of Utkarsh Global Foundation go back to 2007, in the modest lanes of Rahul Nagar, Mulund Colony, Mumbai. Seven young friends witnessed activities such as gambling and smoking taking place in the name of a religious celebration. When the youngest among them attempted to intervene, he was pushed aside.

That incident left a lasting impression on them. The seven friends made a promise-to organise celebrations that would spread values, creativity and positivity instead of encouraging harmful practices.

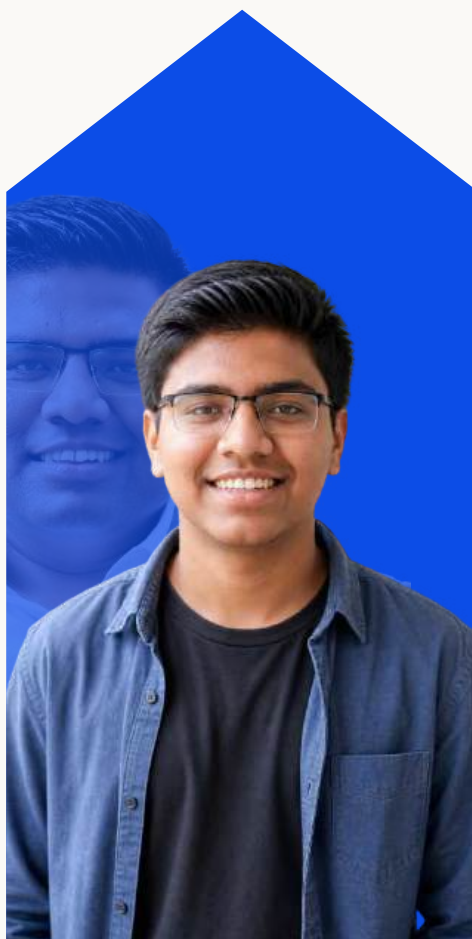

The following year, they went from door to door collecting small contributions from the community. Despite having limited resources, they organised their own Ganpati festival featuring drawing competitions, devotional songs, poetry and cultural activities. Their initiative inspired a respected local elder, who encouraged them to organise their efforts formally.

Together, they chose the name "Utkarsh," meaning growth, progress and upliftment.

As their journey continued, the young changemakers realised that true devotion lies in serving society. They pooled their personal savings and collected ₹7,321. With this amount, they donated a water filter to the government school where they themselves studied, ensuring access to clean drinking water for fellow students.

This simple yet meaningful act became one of their earliest steps towards organised social service. Their sincerity, transparency and commitment gradually earned the trust and support of the local community.

On 8 September 2010, the organisation was formally established, transforming a heartfelt promise into a structured mission for social change.

Every experience subsequently shaped a new movement. The sight of cattle consuming plastic waste inspired the Environment Protection Movement and the distribution of reusable cloth bags. The need to provide women with sustainable livelihood opportunities led to the Women Education and Empowerment Movement. The heartbreaking loss of a stray cat strengthened their resolve to establish an animal hospital, laying the foundation of the Animal Welfare Movement.

With time, the Foundation expanded its mission to address several interconnected social concerns. Its work grew to include environmental protection, animal welfare, women's education and empowerment, social justice, disaster preparedness and relief, road safety, healthcare, citizen welfare and education.

What began as a small community initiative in Mulund gradually developed into a wider movement reaching communities across multiple states of India. The organisation established animal hospitals, women empowerment centres and community-based programmes while implementing large-scale campaigns, awareness initiatives, educational activities and relief operations.

In 2019, reflecting its expanding vision and growing reach, Utkarsh Star Mitra Mandal evolved into Utkarsh Global Foundation.

Today, the seven young dreamers have grown into committed leaders, supported by more than 200 team members and united by one common mission-to build a better world through compassion, service and action.

On 8 September 2025, Utkarsh Global Foundation completed fifteen years of dedicated service. This milestone represents countless lives touched, communities empowered, animals protected and people united for positive change.

As the Foundation moves forward, its journey continues with the vision of a Plastic-Free India, a Rabies-Free India, accessible animal healthcare, empowered communities and a society where every individual can live with dignity.

This is not merely the story of an organisation.

It is the story of how seven ordinary children proved that one sincere promise, supported by compassion and consistent action, can transform thousands of lives.
